

¡Colorín colorado!

Hispanic Heritage Month is September 15 – October 15

Get a jump-start on helping your Latino ELLs... read and succeed!

Visit www.ColorinColorado.org

Your one-stop-shop for FREE research-based information, resources, and tools on teaching English language learners (ELLs)

What you'll find

- Information about Latino cultures and values
- Strategies for assessing and placing ELLs
- Best instructional practices for teaching vocabulary, reading, and content areas
- The Colorín Colorado T.ELLE-GRAM, an e-newsletter especially for educators
- El Boletín Informativo Colorín Colorado, our Spanish-language newsletter for parents
- And many more resources and ideas to use in the classroom!

Ready-to-download

- AFT Toolkit for Teachers: Reaching Out to Hispanic Parents of ELLs. Use the workshop ideas, handouts, and bilingual video components to involve parents in the classroom
- Teacher Sampler Pack with ready-to-use assessment and reading checklists, plus progress forms
- Professional development webcasts on teaching ELLs, available for free, anytime
- Author interviews and other engaging video

Colorín Colorado, a partnership of AFT & Reading Rockets

Original artwork by Caldecott Award-winning illustrator David Diaz.

A Union of Professionals
American Federation of Teachers, AFL-CIO

Colorín Colorado is a project of Reading Rockets, a national educational service of public television station WETA. Major support for Colorín Colorado is provided by the American Federation of Teachers. Additional support comes from the National Institute for Literacy and the U.S. Department of Education, Office of Special Education Programs.